

Reservation of Rights (UCC 1-308) for Right to Travel

Notice to All Public Officials, Officers, Agents, and Agencies:

I, _____ (full legal name), a natural living being, hereby provide formal notice and declare the following:

Pursuant to Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) 1-308, without prejudice, I explicitly reserve all of my unalienable Rights at all times, including but not limited to my Constitutional Right to travel freely, unencumbered, and without government intrusion, as secured by the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights, including the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth, and Tenth Amendments, and all applicable natural and common law rights.

I do not, by my conduct, words, silence, compliance, or participation in any interactions, proceedings, or governmental demands (including but not limited to requests for identification, licenses, registrations, or insurance) waive, surrender, forfeit, or contractually diminish any of my rights.

Any such compliance is under threat, duress, coercion, or intimidation, and does not constitute free and voluntary consent.

This Reservation of Rights applies especially to any and all demands made regarding:

- Traveling in my private automobile for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- Providing personal information or documentation under compulsion.
- Submitting to administrative proceedings or statutory codes not voluntarily entered into.
- Licensing requirements that convert constitutionally secured rights into government-granted privileges.

No statement or action made by me, at any time, shall be construed as a voluntary waiver of any rights, privileges, or immunities.

Reference:

UCC 1-308: "A party that with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved."
